

An Alternative Residency/Fellowship Approach: The UK Perspective

Kate Knowles
James Pratt

Session Objectives

Contextualise the main principles and structures surrounding advanced practice in England

Appreciate an alternative method of training your own APPs in the UK healthcare system

Understand the value of partnership working in developing, retaining and supporting APPs in the UK

Value |

Develop |

Excel

Nomenclature

Multi-professional framework for advanced clinical practice in England

£140,000

Training Framework

Year	module (s)	no months	current post	University time	supernumerary	Consultant supervision	ACP rota qualified	pay band
yr1	Module 1	6	22.5	15	0	0	0	6
yr1	Module 2	4	22.5	15	0	0	0	6
yr2	Portfolio	14	0	7.5	30	1	0	6
yr2	Prescribing	6	0	7.5	30	1	0	7
yr3	Transition to practice	4	0	6	n/a	1	31.5	7
yr3	Completed MSc	0	0	6	n/a	1	31.5	8a

Assurance – to provide certainty
through evidence

155 ACPs at NUH

- Qualified 77

- Trainees 78 (54 apprentices)

11 qualified left NUH since 2011

ACP Careers

