

Amy Hite, DNP, EdS, APRN, FNP
Professor and HRSA SANE & NPR Grants Project Director
Pittsburg State University
Irene Ransom Bradley School of Nursing

Dr. Amy Hite is a Professor in the PSU School of Nursing, teaching in undergraduate and graduate courses since 2004. She serves as the Project Director for the HRSA Nurse Practitioner Residency and Sexual Assault Exam Grants. Dr. Hite obtained her bachelors and master's degree in Nursing from PSU, Doctor of Nursing Practice from the University of Kansas, and is completing her Doctor of Education in Higher Education Leadership from Lindenwood University. Dr. Hite has extensive education and clinical practice in rural healthcare, she is a part time nurse practitioner in a Level III Emergency Department. Her qualifications are evident through her history of service, leadership, mentoring, and organizational skills; from serving on regional, national, and international organization boards, committees, and task forces. She has presented and published on a variety of topics related to graduate nursing education, professional identity in nursing, retention of forensic nurses, and orthopedic nursing.